

Blake Harrell Football Camps, LLC- Camp Rules and Orientation

(All campers/parents/guardians should review the information below prior to arriving to a camp session.)

- Camp counselors/coaches make sure that all campers have the best time possible while also looking out for each camper's health and safety. If a camper has any questions, they should address their concerns with their counselor/coach immediately.
- R-E-S-P-E-C-T - Blatant disrespect (including use of inappropriate and vulgar language) towards fellow camp participants or staff will not be tolerated.
- Breaking the Law - Any offense that is against U.S. or State law will be handled according to the law. ECU Police will be notified immediately of any illegal activity. This is included but not limited to: deliberate vandalism or damage to property, harassment, theft, and sexual misconduct.
- THEFT will not be tolerated. All equipment and compression shirts must be returned to camp staff after use, at the conclusion of camps. If such items are noticed to have been taken, the proper authorities will be notified.
- As a best practice, we recommend leaving all valuables at home. Blake Harrell Football Camps, LLC is not responsible for loss of personal property. Respect other people's property.
- In case of injury or illness, or other emergency, notify the Athletic Trainer or designated representative immediately.
- Notify your camp counselor/coach if you must leave a camp session early.
- Our Athletic Trainers will monitor the weather. In the case of severe weather, all campers/staff will be directed to safe shelter until conditions improve.
- All NCAA recruiting rules pertaining to prospective student athletes must be adhered to.
- All spectators (parents/guardians, family, friends) may observe a camp session, but must stay at the fence line to avoid any potential injury.
- Any camper not following camp rules will be dismissed from camp and will not be able to participate in any future camp sessions. If the camper is a minor, the parent/guardian will be contacted immediately.

◇ Restrooms are available under Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium

◇ Water Stations can be found on the sideline of the Stadium Field and at tables near the tower on the practice fields